

MENTORING MIĘDZY MOLAMI

SOPOTU, GDAŃSKA I GDYNI

Marit Imeland Gjesme

Founder of CultureCatch, is an experienced trainer and coach who helps companies with improving their cultural agility, leadership, cross-cultural cooperation and international success.

By designing and running diversity training programs uniquely tailored to each client, she drives development and implementation of company culture and values across cultures, penetrating all organizational levels for sustainable results.

With a long career from both academia and business as a university lecturer, trainer, leader, coach and process facilitator, also building and leading a corporate university for a huge global company over 15 years, she has performed leadership- and team-building workshops in more than 40 countries, covering people from a 100 cultures.

Marit currently works frequently in the Middle East and for the UN in Geneva, and her core competency is building bridges between Arabic, Western and Asian business cultures, especially focusing on multi-national projects, Mergers & Acquisitions.

CULTURE CATCH®
capturing the secrets of global agility